

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I would be just as outraged if Sinclair decided to air an anti-Bush documentary in the same sleazy manner, right before the national election.

It smells like bad fish to me. This action of Sinclair's is un-American and I request that the FCC do what is right in this case.

Thank You for your attention to this matter.
